IN THE MATTER Of The Application	)
Of The MONTANA POWER COMPANY For	) UTILITY DIVISION
Authority To Make Short-Term Borrowings	) DOCKET NO. 85.11.48
In Calendar Year of 1986	) DEFAULT ORDER NO. 5172

On November 27, 1985, The Montana Power Company (Applicant) filed with this Commission a verified application requesting authority to issue, assume or guarantee short-term securities (in the form of revolving credit and term loan agreements, copies of which have been provided the Commission, promissory notes to banks, Banker Acceptance Drafts or by such other means as may be deemed advisable) in an amount which, including short-term notes now outstanding, will not, in the aggregate, exceed $200 million at any one time outstanding during the period from January 1, 1986 to December 31, 1986.

At a session of the Public Service Commission of the State of Montana, held in its offices at 2701 Prospect Avenue, Helena, Montana, on December 16, 1985, there regularly came before the Commission for final action the request in this Docket and the Commission being fully advised in the premises makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Applicant is a corporation organized and existing under the Laws of Montana and is qualified to transact business in Montana.
2. Applicant is engaged in electric and natural gas operations and, as such, is a public utility as defined in Section 69-3-101, MCA.
3. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this application, under Sections 69-3-501 through 69-3-507, MCA, inclusive, in that the short-term borrowing and the securities proposed to be issued by applicant will, in the aggregate, exceed five percent (5%) of the fair market value and/or par value of Applicant's other securities outstanding.

4. Public notice of the application was given by inclusion of the application on the Commission's agenda for December 9, 1985.

5. The proceeds from the short-term borrowings, together with internally-generated funds, will be used to meet the cash requirements of current business transactions, pending issuance of long-term securities. These business requirements consist of the temporary financing of the acquisition of property, the construction and improvement of facilities, the maintenance of service, and discharge and lawful refunding of obligations and other lawful purposes of Applicant.

6. The securities to be issued, assumed or guaranteed by the Applicant shall be in the form of secured and unsecured obligations in varying denominations, principally in the following forms: (1) revolving credit and term loan agreements; (2) notes payable to commercial banks; (3) Banker Acceptance Drafts; and (4) such other forms of short-term borrowings as may be deemed advisable by Applicant.

7. Arrangements will be made for bank loans to be evidenced by promissory notes with commercial banks or others. Term loans with commercial banks or others and short-term borrowing arrangements will be made on such conditions as may be deemed advisable at the time of issuance. Expenses in connection with the making of such short-term borrowings have been estimated not to exceed $20,000.

8. Applicant plans to either issue long-term securities or use internally-generated funds to retire the short-term borrowings made or to be made under this application. The type, amount, timing and method of sale of such securities has not yet been fully determined.

9. Applicant furnished complete financial and statistical data with its application, in accordance with developed practice of the Commission. The application sets forth a certified copy of the appropriate corporate resolution pertaining thereto.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The securities transactions proposed by the application, as hereinafter authorized, will be for a lawful purpose and are consistent with the public interest; that same are necessary or appropriate for and consistent with the proper performance by Applicant of service as a public utility; and that the aggregate amount of the securities outstanding and proposed to be outstanding will not exceed the fair value of the properties and business of the Applicant.
